

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

Washington.—Anthracite coal trust partially dissolved by order of Supreme Court of U. S.

Pittsburgh.—With consolidation as main object, Polish Falcons of America and Polish Nat'l Alliance of Falcons today continued joint convention. Deadlocked on details of union.

Washington.—Inquiry into Chicago clearing house and more dope on N. Y. stock exchange planned by Fujo money trust committee.

Indianapolis.—End of dynamite trial in sight. 26 of 41 defendants have testified. Defense will close by Thursday evening.

Washington.—Pres. Taft announced today that he would not fill post of ambassador to Great Britain, left open by death of Ambassador Reid.

Red Cliff, Colo.—Highwayman who held up the Rio Grande station at Pando, Colo., and shot Wm. Maxfield to death, was held today waiting further identification.

Madison, Wis.—Body of Wm. Penn, Lake Mills, son of Mayor and Mrs. Penn, found in Rock Lake. Fell through ice Friday.

Milwaukee.—Local women are getting "on the band wagon." Following women of N. Y., Chicago and St. Paul in lining up against high cost of living. They will also sell eggs.

Minneapolis.—Det. T. Gallagher left today for Celwain, Iowa, to identify negro held there, thought to be Wm. H.

Lewis, wanted for shooting and killing John Partee, another negro, Sunday.

Onatawanna, Minn.—Two seriously injured when a train dashed into rear end of freight train standing on main track of R. L. Ry. here. Five cars burned.

New York.—August Belmont has donated another thoroughbred colt to U. S. government.

Rome.—15 women and men injured in Catania Ry. accident, died today. Total dead 25.

South Bend.—Ben Kahn, former local merchant, and Ben Franklin, Chicago, arrested charged with firing Kahn's clothing store last April.

Zion City, Ill.—"Prophet" Voliva, enraged by attempts of authorities to discover why sick Zionites were not saved by prayer, charged that the doctors are "thieves, liars and bloodthirsty scoundrels."

London.—Destruction of one Greek cruiser and two Greek torpedo boats reported from Constantinople.

Eugene, Ore.—J. F. Morgan, leader of I. W. W. strike against P. E. & E. Ry., found guilty of assault and battery on A. J. Goodwin. Fined $50 and costs. Locked up.

Indianapolis.—Unknow negro porch climber escaped with $1,200 worth of jewelry from home of J. H. Snowden. Left $19,000 worth.

Los Angeles.—Balloon parted steel cable at Venice, seaside re-